YOUR PRAYERS ARE CHANGING LIVES!

Amid the COVID-19 crisis, School Without Walls (SWW) leaders in Eurasia are bringing life-saving food, medicine, cleaning supplies, and Scripture to their suffering neighbors.

Recently, SWW leaders in Ukraine visited the village of Osypenko, where Nikolai, Natalya, and their six children (pictured on front cover) are surviving on what they grow in their garden. Nikolai lost his job when the pandemic began, and the children are getting restless after being stuck in the house for so long. "But today, Christians brought us food to eat," Denis, one of the children, shared. "They also gave us children's Bibles, and we can't wait to read them!"

The SWW leaders gave Nikolai and Natalya a box of food, cleaning supplies, facemasks, and Scripture, and they played games outside with the children and their friends. Now, they are planning to lead a neighborhood summer Bible day camp for 10 children in Osypenko. Through this camp, and many other neighborhood day camps taking place across Eurasia this year, SWW leaders are sharing the gospel with groups of 10 children in line with social-distancing rules.

Please pray for our SWW leaders' COVID-19 relief efforts, and that this year's neighborhood summer Bible day camps would impact Eurasia's hurting children with the love of Christ.
