

UPCOMING MINISTRY EVENTS

March 5

A youth conference will take place in Transnistria (Moldova). Aleksandr Belev, our SWW international director, will speak to around 200 young people, including some SWW graduates, from Baptist churches in the region.

March 5-7

A leadership conference will take place for Christian teachers in Russia. Around 45 teachers and leaders of associations and groups are expected to attend. This event is part of our Next Generation Professional Leaders Initiative (NGPLI), and Natalia Grishchenko will be leading it. Mission Eurasia will also provide printed resources for participants.

March 18-20

A Next Generation Professional Leaders Initiative (NGPLI) conference will take place in Krasnoyarsk, Russia. Around 70 leaders, many of whom have gone through our SWW program, are expected to attend this conference that we are co-organizing.

March 19

A youth conference called South Point will take place in Kherson, Ukraine. We are expecting 300-350 young people to attend. Mission Eurasia is co-sponsoring this conference and will provide speakers as well as printed resources on evangelism and personal and team growth.

March 25-27

A regional youth conference will take place in Salekhard in Russia's Far North. One hundred young people representing various small indigenous people groups, including the Komi, Khanty, Nentsy, and Tselkupy, are expected to attend.

March 26

Mission Eurasia will participate in a training seminar on discipleship in Transnistria (Moldova). We are partnering with the International Sports Coalition, a long-time ministry partner, to provide training for teams that are starting sports ministries in Transnistria. Aleksandr Belev will represent Mission Eurasia and will speak on discipleship.

Date TBD A seminar on street evangelism will take place in Irpin, Ukraine. This seminar has been prepared by our friend and SWW partner, Dmitriy Kaznodi, who will also present his manual on evangelism that we hope to print soon.

Raisa's Story

"I am 78-years-old, and I live by myself in the war zone of eastern Ukraine. My husband and I used to live together in our home, but the war in Donbass changed everything."

Now, I am partially deaf and I live alone. My husband isn't able to help me because he was injured during one of the bombings. He now lives with his relatives in a different city and is in need of constant care. I wouldn't have been able to take care of him on my own, and I just can't leave our house, because I have spent so much of my life here. It is very difficult to live alone in the midst of so much devastation, especially when you don't know what will happen tomorrow, and you just hope to see your husband again. These challenges fill my life with unbearable sorrow.

"But I am so grateful to the people from Mission Eurasia who gave me a Bible, which gives me peace that can't be crushed by my troubles. They also gave me food and clothing that keeps me warm in my cold, empty house.

"Now I can go to God when I read my Bible. I usually read it in the evening, but I have to use a flashlight, because I don't have electricity. I don't know how to thank you enough for giving me God's Word, and for all of your help during this difficult time. You supported me when I needed food and warmth for my body and soul. I always look forward to your visits. Thank you for your warm hearts, which God moves to help people like me!"

1 Praise God for the wonderful School Without Walls (SWW) gathering held in Moldova in February. National and regional SWW coordinators from Russia, Ukraine, Moldova, Belarus, Kazakhstan, and Israel attended this time of ministry program review and planning. This was also a time of prayer for many areas.

2 Please continue to pray for peace in Ukraine, that the situation with Russia will be peacefully resolved.

3 Please pray for the planning of a School Without Walls (SWW) conference in western Georgia.

4 Please pray for a youth conference in Transnistria (Moldova) on March 5. Aleksandr Belev, our SWW international director, will speak to around 200 young people from Baptist churches in the region.

5 Pray for a leadership conference for Christian teachers in Russia taking place March 5 – 7. This is part of our Next Generation Professional Leaders Initiative (NGPLI), and Natalia Grishchenko will be leading it.

6 Please join us in praying for the health of the staff of the International Alliance for the Development of Christian Education (IADCE) and their families, as well as a speedy recovery for those who are sick.

7 Pray for a women's meeting that is taking place today at Church Without Walls, Pinsk, Belarus, in preparation for International Women's Day, which is celebrated on March 8. Pray that the Lord would work in the hearts of those attending.

8 Praise God for visible fruit from sharing the gospel in Azerbaijan. Pray that God would continue working, and that His glory would spread to even more regions.

9 Please pray for the SWW sessions in Armenia, that the students would grow spiritually and would have wisdom and passion to serve.

10 Please pray for our SWW students and other leaders in Buryatia, a predominantly Buddhist region in Siberia, who will be going on two short-term mission trips to northern Buryatia to share the gospel. Please pray for hearts to be opened to receive the gospel and for necessary resources for the trip.

11 Guram Imerlishvili, our SWW coordinator in Georgia, and his wife are expecting a baby in March. Please pray for a safe delivery and for the baby to be healthy and strong.

12 Pray for Light to the World Church and Hope Church, in Belarus, as they host a Praise and Worship evening together to glorify the Lord.

13 God's Family Church in Minsk, Belarus is asking for prayer for individuals who were wrongly imprisoned and for their relatives, that God would free them and help them endure this difficult time.

14 Please pray for the team of SWW students who have started serving Holocaust survivors in Israel, that many survivors would be comforted with God's love and peace.

15 Praise God we will be able to print Spark gospel magazine in Russian and Romanian. Pray that these magazines will be printed and distributed quickly so that they can impact the children and adults who receive them.

16 Pray for the training of SWW leaders on how to share the gospel in large cities around Ukraine. We have developed a manual and look forward to a training session in March in Irpin, Ukraine.

17 Please pray for our Next Generation Professional Leaders Initiative (NGPLI) conference taking place March 18-20 in Krasnoyarsk, Russia. Around 70 leaders, many of whom have gone through our SWW program, are expected to attend this conference that we are co-organizing.

18 We are expecting 300-350 young people to attend a youth conference, South Point, in Kherson, Ukraine. Please pray that this conference will encourage personal and team growth through the speakers and resources we provide.

19 Pray for schools in Ukraine that start or continue Teaching Christianly 4+ distance-learning training in March 2022.

20 Pray for two young women, Lera and Sofia, who are in the Israeli army and who join the youth team in Rishon LeZion on weekends. Please pray for their spiritual growth.

21 Please pray that God would protect church workers and their families in Azerbaijan, and that Satan would not attack these families and erect barriers to their ministry.

22 Pray for Armenia as they suffered a strong earthquake earlier this month. There has been great suffering in Armenia recently, so please pray for God's strength and peace.

23 Pray for The Gospel for Students project in Krasnodar, Russia. Please pray for new leaders to minister to young people in this new church.

24 Pray for a regional youth conference in Salekhard in Russia's Far North that is taking place from March 25-27. One hundred young people, representing various indigenous people groups from the Republic of Komi, Yamal, and Yurga are expected to attend.

25 Pray that political tensions in Georgia would be peacefully resolved and that there would be no blood shed. Please pray for wisdom for our SWW team during this time.

26 Today, we will participate in a training seminar on discipleship in Transnistria (Moldova). We are partnering with the International Sports Coalition, a long-time ministry partner, to provide training for teams that are starting sports ministries in Transnistria. Aleksandr Belev will represent Mission Eurasia and will speak on discipleship.

27 Praise God for small groups at Church Without Walls, Pinsk, Belarus. Their mission and discipleship focus is bearing fruit as more non-Christians are attending these groups. Please pray that more people will accept God's gift of salvation.

28 Join Ray and Cindy LeClair, our missionaries in Kyiv, Ukraine, in prayer as their office is moving and many events and activities are planned for this spring.

29 Continue praying for many who are suffering from COVID and for those who are recovering very slowly from this illness.

30 Please pray for the family of Dmitry Polyukhov, our national SWW coordinator in Belarus. Pray that God would grant Dmitry's wife strength as she cultivates her calling and for resources to enable her to do that. Also, please pray for their daughter, who is seeking to enroll in a Christian university in either the US or Lithuania.

31 We thank God for His provisions for our ministry as we continue to share the gospel throughout Eurasia for His glory.
